1. The undersigned hereby assigns to The Journal of Communications of Information all rights under copyright that may exist in and to:
(a) the above Work, including any revised or expanded derivative works submitted to the JCN by the undersigned based on the Work; and (b) any associated written or multimedia components or other enhancements accompanying the Work.
2. JCN shall make the final, published version of the article freely available in JCN Digital Library and IEEE Xplore.
3. The undersigned hereby grants JCN the unlimited, worldwide, irrevocable right to use his/her name, picture, likeness, voice and biographical information as part of the advertisement, distribution and sale of products incorporating the Work or Presentation, and releases JCN from any claim based on right of privacy or publicity.
4. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Work and Presentation (collectively, the "Materials") are original and that he/she is the author of the Materials. To the extent the Materials incorporate text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. Where necessary, the undersigned has obtained all third party permissions and consents to grant the license above and has provided copies of such permissions and consents to JCN.
5. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.
6. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the JCN from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.
7. In the event the above work is not accepted and published by the JCN or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the JCN, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to the JCN will be destroyed.
8. For jointly authored Works, all joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.

TERMS & CONDITIONS and RETAINED RIGHTS

General

1. Authors and/or their employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.
2. Authors/employers/funding agencies may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Work, material extracted verbatim from the Work, or derivative works for the author's personal use or for company use, provided that the source and the JCN copyright notice are indicated, the copies are not used in any way that implies JCN endorsement of a product or service of any employer, and the copies themselves are not offered for sale.
3. Although authors are permitted to re-use all or portions of the Work in other works, this does not include granting third-party requests for reprinting, republishing, or other types of re-use. The JCN office must handle all such third-party requests.
4. Authors whose work was performed under a grant from a funding agency are free to fulfill any deposit mandates from that funding agency.
5. Authors recognize that the payment of an Article Processing Charge is a requirement of open access publishing with JCN below
- The article processing charge (APC) is $1,300 per article (plus applicable local taxes) without page limits. (The new rule for APC and page limit takes effect for papers submitted after October 9, 2020) For the papers submitted before October 8, 2020, the author will be requested to pay a mandatory page charge of $90 per printed page to cover part of the cost of publication. For papers in excess of six printed pages, a mandatory page charge of $150 per printed page will be requested for the printed pages beyond six pages. Detailed instructions will accompany the payment request.

Author Online Use of Open Access Articles

Personal Servers: Authors, their employers and/or their funding agencies shall have the right to post the final, published version of JCN-copyrighted articles on their own personal servers or the servers of their institutions or employers without permission from JCN, provided that the posted version includes a prominently displayed JCN copyright notice and, when published, a full citation to the original JCN publication, including the article's Digital Object Identifier (DOI).

Classroom or Internal Training Use: An author is expressly permitted to post any portion of the final, published version of his/her own JCN - copyrighted articles on the author's personal web site or the servers of the author's institution or company in connection with the author's teaching, training, or work responsibilities, provided that the appropriate copyright, credit, and reuse notices appear prominently with the posted material. Examples of permitted uses are lecture materials, course packs, e-reserves, conference presentations, or in-house training courses.

Electronic Preprints: Before submitting an article to JCN, authors frequently post their manuscripts to their own web site, their employer's site, or to another server that invites constructive comment from colleagues. Upon submission of an article to JCN, an author is required to transfer copyright in the article to JCN, and the author must update any previously posted version of the article with a prominently displayed JCN copyright notice. Upon publication of an article by the JCN, the author must replace any previously posted electronic versions of the article with either

- (1) the full citation to the JCN work with a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) or link to the article abstract in JCN Digital Library or IEEE Xplore, or
- (2) the final, published version, including the JCN copyright notice and full citation, with a link to the article in JCN Digital Library or IEEE Xplore.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Author/Employer Rights

If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, the JCN assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this Form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this Form as the Author.

JCN Copyright Ownership

It is the formal policy of the JCN to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein (except in cases where a Creative Commons or similar license is used), in order to protect the interests of the JCN, its authors and their employers, and their funding agencies, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. The JCN distributes its technical publications throughout the world and does so by various means such as hard copy, microfiche, microfilm, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate.

The article will be published under a CC-BY-NC license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/>) which permits unrestricted non-commercial use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

Note: If you need to comply with your funding body policy, you can apply for the CC BY license after your manuscript is accepted for publication.

INFORMATION FOR READERS ON THE USE OF OPEN ACCESS ARTICLES

Reuse

Third-party users may view, print, copy and download the content for personal use or academic purposes. Users may also post links to the published JCN version of the Work, including the Digital Object Identifier (DOI), for their own non-commercial use. All third-party users must provide complete attribution to both the JCN publication title and the names of the author(s) of the Work. To copy otherwise, or to distribute/display the Work by third parties, requires the permission of JCN.

Reserved Rights of JCN

JCN reserves the right to limit the production of derivative works and commercial exploitation of the Work. Should a third party seek to make a derivative work based on the Work or commercially exploit the Work they must seek permission from JCN.

Text and Data Mining/Translation Rights

Non-commercial translations as well as text and data mining of the Work are permitted. However, should a third party seek to engage in such activity for commercial purposes the express, written permission of JCN shall be required. Any translation must prominently link to the JCN published version and prominently display the following: “This is an unofficial translation of a JCN publication. JCN has not endorsed the content of this translation.”

THIS FORM MUST ACCOMPANY THE SUBMISSION OF THE AUTHOR’S MANUSCRIPT.

Questions about the submission of the form or manuscript must be sent to the JCN office.
